Greetings!

As a TRIO Scholar, you have high expectations for yourself. You aspire to earn a college degree through time, hard work, personal responsibility, and use of the student support resources available to you. We know this because otherwise you wouldn't have joined TRIO Scholars.

Just the same, we have high expectations for you. We expect you to give your best to your classes, to meet with your educational case manager, to persist through the "bumps in the road," and to participate in workshops, activities, and tutoring.

Expect much of yourself. Add in determination and inspiration and you're well on your way to success!

- TRIO Scholars Staff

TRIO Scholars Honor Roll

Congratulations to the 57 TRIO Scholars who earned a place on the Spring Semester Honor Roll. These 57 students completed at least 6 college level credits with a GPA of 3.0 or higher during the semester. Keep up the great work! We expect to see even more students on the Honor Roll this fall!

Troy Out of the Office Next Week

Troy will be on vacation until Monday, July 20. All TRIO Scholars who have questions or need to speak with an educational case manager will work with Khara during this time. Call 30556-4964 to set up an appointment with her!
