Parents of dependent students may have access to borrow Direct PLUS Loan funds to assist with their student's educational costs. The student must be enrolled in at least 6 credits in order for the parent to borrow PLUS funds. The parent applying for the Parent PLUS Loan must be listed on the student's FAFSA and complete the following:

Processing Steps:

1. The student's 2019-2020 FAFSA must be completed online at the FAFSA Website
2. Parent: To determine if you are eligible to borrow Direct PLUS Loan funds, complete the credit check and PLUS Loan application at the Federal Student Aid Website. Credit check results will be sent directly to CCD's Financial Aid Office.
3. Parent: Complete this application and submit to CCD's Financial Aid Office.

If the parent's credit check results in an approval and the parent wishes to borrow funds on behalf of the student, the parent borrower must complete an online Master Promissory Note (MPN) at the Federal Direct Loan Website.

If the parent's application is denied due to adverse credit, the student may request additional unsubsidized (interest-bearing) loan funds from CCD. The parent also has the option to secure an endorser and submit that information to the U.S. Department of Education for review.

The Master Promissory Note (MPN):

The parent must complete an MPN at the Department of Education's Federal Direct Loan Website before PLUS loan funds can be released. The MPN can be completed at any stage of the PLUS application process. Entrance Counseling may also be required.

Disbursement:

The PLUS loan will be disbursed (paid) into the student's CCD tuition account balance in two equal installments. For example, if the requested loan period is fall and spring, the first installment will be disbursed at the beginning of the fall semester and the second installment will be disbursed at the beginning of the spring semester. If the loan period is for one semester only, the first installment will be disbursed at the beginning of the semester and the second installment will be disbursed mid-semester.
