 - 1 rep from SEP still needed. Tri-Institutional committee
 - Student organization orientation Tuesday 8/25 CHR 102 2-3pm
 - Peer-Mentor program being worked on by Kat and Alessia. This will be peers helping others navigate a path to get involved in CCD.

- Master Plan committee looking for 10-12 students for focus group. Committee focuses on growth of campus and making it more welcoming. This meeting will be the week of September 16th and food will be provided.
- Symphony 5K, first 25 people (students, faculty, and staff) will have entry fee paid. Shirts might be available for beyond 25 people. Look for additional information in weekly update. Idea of making the 25 slots being available to students first, Mel will check into if we can make that possible and get back to SGA. Colorado Symphony Orchestra tickets BOGO were available last year, may be available this year as well.
- Search committee for Events Coordinator in underway and requesting an open forum with a student presence. There are currently 3 candidates.

G. SACAB Report:
Kristann:

- Tobacco Free launch on campus with designated smoking areas. Kristann touched on how the campus needs more awareness of designated smoking areas. Changes go in to effect January 2016. Will look into enforcement of violations.

H. SSAC Report:

- Student Ambassador Club underway. Drawing for Broncos tickets has been picking up.
- Possible Bill to request food for New Student Orientation. Student Ambassador Club has been looking into ideas for better retention. Look for this going forward. Potential focus groups to improve process.

I. Student Rep. Reports:
Ramón :

- Recruitment methods for the AMC on Auraria Campus. Cross Campus tours during visits or orientations so that students are aware of the AMC and Lowry campus.
- North campus has now officially moved completely to the new AMC building.
- Classes were delayed and the 7 week classes will be 6 weeks long. Classes will start 8/26/15.

Moe :

- Working on preferred name change. This is on the Vice Presidents radar and we will continue to pursue a solution.
