Your 2020-2021 FAFSA has been flagged for “Unusual Enrollment History Review” by the U.S. Department of Education because you received financial aid at multiple schools from 2016 through 2020.* This flag requires CCD to review your enrollment history and determine whether or not you earned academic credit while receiving federal student aid. CCD will verify the schools you have attended, the dates of your attendance, as well as the aid you received during this review period via the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS).

1. Before submitting this completed form to CCD’s Financial Aid Office, you must submit official academic transcripts for all schools you attended during the academic periods that include 2016-2017, 2017-2018, 2018-2019 and 2019-2020 to CCD’s Office of Registration & Records (ORR). Do not include CCD transcripts. CCD cannot process your FAFSA until you submit this completed form to the Financial Aid Office and all required official transcripts to ORR (Confluence Building, Suite 114).

2. If you failed to earn any academic credit at any college during any semester from fall 2016 to summer 2020, you must attach a typed explanation to this form, explaining why you were unable to complete any of your classes. Include documentation (i.e., hospitalization records, death certificates, accident reports, etc.) to support your reasons for not completing any attempted classes.

3. Complete the chart below. List all schools (including CCD) that you attended during the academic periods that include 2016-2017, 2017-2018, 2018-2019 and 2019-2020. Continue on the next page if necessary.

Note: Completing this form does not guarantee that you will be awarded financial aid at CCD. While this Unusual Enrollment History hold may impact your financial aid eligibility, it does not impact your admission to CCD and is not an admissions requirement. If denied, you may still attend classes at CCD without the benefit of financial aid.

*The Department of Education grants CCD the right to place this hold if a student's prior academic history indicates possible abuse of Title IV student aid programs.
