ARP Expenditures

After the end of third quarter, the COVID Impact Grant and Emergency Aid applications remained open. The Financial Aid Office reviewed all applications individually and awarded according to the student’s chosen award preference (applied toward tuition and fees or direct to students). More applications were received than CCD was able to accommodate with HEERF monies. Thus the negative $15,902.97 is displayed above. CCD was able to subsequently cancel the over-expended awards and repay them using institutional funds (after the quarter close date of 12/31/21).

The ARP student allocation is now exhausted.
